James Carter and he happens to be next to Det. Lee in Hong Kong, wanting more excitement. While Carter wants to party and meet with the ladies, Lee is out to track down the Trial of the Lord's Gang Gang, who may be responsible for killing two people at the American Embassy. Things get complicated as the couple stumble upon a fake conspiracy by Los Angeles crime boss Stephen Raine and Triad Ricky Tan, a former police officer who played a mysterious role in the death of the children's father. It's Lee. Throw in the power struggle between Tang and the gorgeous but dangerous Hu Li and the boys soon up to their necks in fistfights and life-threatening situations. A trip back to the U.S. can provide answers about the bombing, forgery and true loyalty of Isabella's sexual customs agent. Again, this may prove to be more excitement than Carter was looking for during his vacation. Author Lordship Plot Summary (en) Add synopsis slogans: Get ready for the second rush! More when Carter plays dice on Red Dragon he throws Winner 7. Shows the dice as well as the chips on passline. There are also chips behind Passline that are called Odds in craps game. However, there is no chance of a Winner 7. This is a general rule in craps game. Odds were shown when Carter rolled 7. This will result in what is called 7 out, not Winner 7. 7 rolled when the odds show will mean that all bets are losing, not winning. Read more James Carter: Use their tiger teeth! See more DVD includes a few deleted scenes: a little banter between Carter and Lee before they enter a nightclub. Carter talks to Captain Diel (Philip Baker Hall) on the phone and gets scolded for doing police work in Hong Kong.When Carter wanders around the market and asks for a massage parlor, he mistakenly asks an old man in Cantonese if he can spank his daughter with a ping-pong paddle. Carter speaks his way into the yacht party, claiming to be the lead singer of the band. During the flight back to Los Angeles, Carter loudly sang along to Stevie Wonder's Superstition. An extended version of the scene in which Carter and Lee try to get rid of the bomb in the hotel. The original version of the scene in the truck. In this version, Carter and Lee are not related and fake money in big wooden boxes. At the Red Dragon Casino pulls Stephen Raine aside, and they exchange sarcastic remarks. Various takes Chris Tucker in announcing Hu Lee's libbed speech after their fight. Various takes Chris Tucker's ad-libbing name to his good friend in San Juan.Different takes Jeremy Piven ad-libbing during his cameo. There are 150 days left until the end of the year. The name of the days in the Swedish calendar Present - Tage Previous in alphabetical order Stefanus - The name existed today until 1901, when it was published. It was there in memory of Saint Stephen, who is said to have been a stable farmer with King Herod (and who is remembered in Swedish in the song of Staffan Swardrang). His actual holiday day is December 26, but he was also on today to celebrate what is called Inventio S. Stephanie protomartyri, which means a rethink of the first martyr Stephen. It was to be this day when he and various other holy human bones were found and delivered to Jerusalem. Tage - The title appeared in the 1790s on September 23, but was later published. In 1901 it was introduced to date and has been there ever since. Tanya - The name was introduced to date in 1986, but was moved from 2001 to April 8. Truls - The title was introduced to date in 1986, but was published in 1993. Previous in chronological order Until 1901 - Stefan1901-1985 - Tage 1986-1992 - Tage, Truls and Tanja 1993-2000 - Tage and Tanja From 2001 - Tage Sources Brylla, Eva (ed.): Namelength Book, Dictionary, Norstedts, Stockholm, 2000. ISBN 91-7227-204-X af Klintberg, Bengt: Names in the calendar, Norstedts Dictionary, Stockholm, 2001. ISBN 91-7227-292-9 In the Norwegian calendar Oline, Oliver and Olve I Danish almanac Nikodemus I Finnish almanac Linnea Events 8 - Romans, led by General Tiberius, defeat the Dalmatians at the Battle of Batinus in the present Balkans. It is part of the great Illyrian uprising that broke out in year 6, but even if it is a decisive Roman victory over the Baltic tribes that started the uprising, it will be until next year before it is fully subdued. This uprising, together with the defeat of the Romans at the Battle of the Teutoburger Forest next year, forces Rome to abandon plans to conquer the territory of the Martians (in the territory of modern Austria and the Czech Republic). 1057 - After the death of Victor II a week earlier, Frederick Gozzelon de Lorraine (also known as Friedrich Lotrinsky) is elected Pope and takes the name of Stephen IX. All these plans, however, should be ashamed as he dies only six months later. 1460 - After the death of James II, his successor as King of Scotland is his 9-year-old son James III. Robert Cochrane is executed on charges that he led Jacob to the murder of his brother Alexander, who is leading a noble rebellion against the king. 1488 falls Jacob Jacob 36 years in battle with rebellious nobles, and then replaced by his 15-year-old son James IV. 1492 - Genoese explorer and merchant Christopher Columbus sails from the Spanish city of Seville on three ships of Santa Maria, Nina and Pinta to find a sea route to India, sailing west. In Europe, he is unaware of the existence of America, he has a theory of reaching India by sailing across the Atlantic, and he is financially supported by the Spanish royal couple. After more than two months of sailing, the expedition reaches what is now known as the Caribbean on October 12, and Columbus is convinced that it has reached India. That's why he names the people he meets Indians. 1523 - Danish King Frederick I (who succeeded the deposed Christian II on March 26) issues the traditional hand-fixing of Danish kings (the equivalent of the Swedish Royal Declaration), affirming the rights and privileges of various stalls. Since Fredrik does not want the dissolution of the Kalmar Union, he has previously called in letters to the people of Sweden to choose him as king and now put even more pressure on the Swedish Empire, he also gives in his hand the far-reaching privileges of the German trade association Hansan. This puts Sweden in a difficult financial position as Hansan currently focuses its trade on Denmark and Norway. In addition, Sweden owes Lubek 120,000 ubsk as payment for aid in the War of Liberation. 1883 - The Groen Lund amusement park in Stockholm is officially opened. Beginning in the 18th century, Gruna Lunden was a place for entertainment (among other things, there were several taverns and a large garden), but within a few years the area had evolved into a funfair area. The amusement park was created by German carpenter Jacob Schulteis, who managed it until his death in 1914. Grun Lund is now Sweden's oldest but existing amusement park. 1914 - Belgium responds to Germany's demands the day before that German troops can pass through the country in order to invade France, that we are a country, not a highway. Thus, Belgium rejects Germany's demands and decides to fight the Germans by all means. In order for Germany to implement Schiffen's plan, which is to quickly defeat France before taking on a huge Russia, Germany declares war on France that day and marches to Belgium. This forces the British to react and gives the Germans until tomorrow to leave Belgium. 1924 - Since the Swedish Football Association decided to find football allsvenskan in January of that year, the first match of this series is played that day. The two teams that meet are IFK Eskilstuna and IR Slepner and the latter wins 3-1, thanks to goalkeeper Evert Blomgren. The autumn season is played between this day and November 9 and the spring season in this first round is played between April 5 and June 7 next year. 1956 - Automotive company introduces the new Volvo model Amazon, as a replacement for the hugely popular Volvo PV 444. However, the car is still only available to dealers in Skovda (it will be presented to the public in Erebro on September 1). The model ran 667,323 copies until 1970, when it was discontinued. A few years after its premiere (1959), it becomes the first car in the world to get a three-point belt in the front seat as standard. 1960 - A year and a half after the French colony of Niger became an autonomous state within the French Commonwealth (after the establishment of the Fifth French Republic), the country of Niger becomes completely independent from France on this day. Since independence at the end of 1958, Hamani Diori has been the country's Prime Minister and remains so until 10 November 1960, when he will become its first President and Prime Minister to be abolished (until 1983). 1963 - Carmelite monastery for nuns is opened in Glumslaw, Scone, outside Landskdon, which will become the first Swedish monastery since the closure of the Wadsten Monastery in 1595. Ever since the old ban on the Swedish monastery was lifted in 1952, the Catholic vicar in Helsingborg Berndt David Assarsson has contacted the Carmelite monastery in Ghent, Belgium, to get the words here if possible. In 1956, some sisters came to Lund in search of a suitable place and chose Gluslav, partly because the only Carmelite monastery in the Middle Ages was in Landskrona. The monastery was built from 1961 to 1963, and the opening of the monastery by Bishop John Taylor was televised.
